FRESHMEN MEET SOPHOMORES TONIGHT

Contest at 22nd and Potomac
Park at 8:00

FRESHMAN MEETING

INTERFRATERNITY TUG-DANC-ING AFTERWARDS

The committee in charge of the Freshman-Sophomore tug-of-war has announced that everything is in readiness for the big scrap which is to take place at 8:00 tonight in Potomac Park at the foot of Twenty-second street. A fireman from Engine Company No. 23 will handle the fire hose which will play upon the center of the rope—a rope 300 feet long and 1 1/2 inches in diameter, which will easily withstand the strength of the twenty-five huskies on each end. "Vic" Kebler, C. C. '18, and Graeme Smallwood, C. C. '19, have been appointed marshals and will see to it that no hooks or small ropes are attached to the rope by anyone except the anchor men, who may be tied to the rope if they so desire.

The Freshman will meet in the A. & S. Assembly Hall for their elections at 7:15 o'clock. Their dressing room will be Prof. Koepfenderfer's room at the rear of the Assembly Hall. The Sophomores will gather in front of the A. & S. building between 7 and 7:30 o'clock, and will have the machine-shop in the rear of the building for their change of clothes. Both these rooms will be locked, so that valuables will be per-the class scrap will be preceded by interfraternity tug between the edges of Sigma Chi and Phi Sigma appa. The Sigma Chi men issued challenge to the pledges of any other fraternity, and the Phi Sigma Kappa men were the first to accept, although they were not the only ones. Dean Wilbur has given his consent to an informal dance in the Assembly Hall after the big battle is over, and music has been secured for this purpose.

Thanks are due to Mr. Watson, Chief Clerk to the Engineer of the Fire Department for his kindness and hearty co-operation with the "rush" committee in arranging for the scrap. All sides are very confident and everyone who turns out to see the double event will be furnished with some excellent amusement.

TRUSTEES MAKE APPOINTMENTS

At a meeting of the board of Trustees late Tuesday afternoon several appointments were made and the resignation of Charles W. Mortimer as assistant professor of Electrical Engineering was accepted.

Appointments were made as follows: Charles Falster Hanson, B. S. in E. E., M. S. in E. E., to be Instructor in Electrical Engineering, from October 15, 1917, until the end of the session.

Guy Turner Morris, M. E., M. S., to be Instructor in Electrical Engineering from October 15, 1917, until the end of the session.

Lewis Eugene McArthur, A. B., A. M., to be Instructor in History from September 1, 1917, for one year.

Sterling R. March, to be Student Assistant in History from September 1, 1917, for one year.

Leslie Harold Adams, to be Student Assistant in History from September 1, 1917, for one year.

Xavier Teillard, B. es. L., to be instructor in French from October 15, 1917, until the end of the session.

Frederick T. Donn, M. D., to be Clinical Instructor in Obstetrics, from October 16, 1917.

PRESIDENT VISITS DREXEL INSTITUTE.

President Stockton spent a few days of last week in Philadelphia representing this university at the twenty-fifth anniversary of the Drexel Institute.

All students who have automobiles are requested to bring them to the scene of the class scrap tonight in order to furnish illumination with their headlights.

PLAYERS CHOOSE THREE COMEDIES

Chairman Selected for Each
Play

TRY-OUTS THURSDAY

"All-of-a-sudden Peggy" by Ernest Denny, "Charlie's Aunt," and "The Imaginary Sick Man" by Moliere were the plays selected by the Dramatic Association at the meeting of that organization on Wednesday evening, October 24, to be tried out at the next meeting.

Owing to the large number of plays which were suggested it was decided to select three of the best and have the try-out for them at the next special meeting which is to be held on Thursday evening, November 1, in the Arts and Science Hall at 8:00.

From the suggestion made by Prof. Croissant it was thought advisable to select a chairman for each of the three plays. Miss Nell Stanton is to have charge of "All-of-a-sudden Peggy," which is a delightful farce-comedy containing funny predicaments. "The Imaginary Sick Man," an excruciatingly funny comedy, was given to Miss Ada Howell. Mr. Christmas is to take "Charlie's Aunt," another good comedy.

In "All-of-a-sudden Peggy," there are 6 men's parts and 5 women's parts. There are also as many parts in the other two plays affording great opportunity to everyone.

There was a large and enthusiastic attendance and it is hoped that it will continue to increase. Mr. Eugene Underwood presided.

This is your chance to do your bit. Come to the next meeting, select your part and make a hit.

It has been proposed to give several one act playlets and sketches at the army training camps in the vicinity this winter. If this is done it will not only give entertainment to Uncle Sam's men but will also be fun for the players.

CHERRY TREE PLANS MADE

Associate Editors and Staff to Be Appointed.

The character of this year's Cherry Tree, according to James Hornaday, editor, will be different from what it has been the last two years. The emphasis will be placed on Seniors and prominent students, while more space will be given over to the lighter side of university life, with numerous illustrations and some live snapshots.

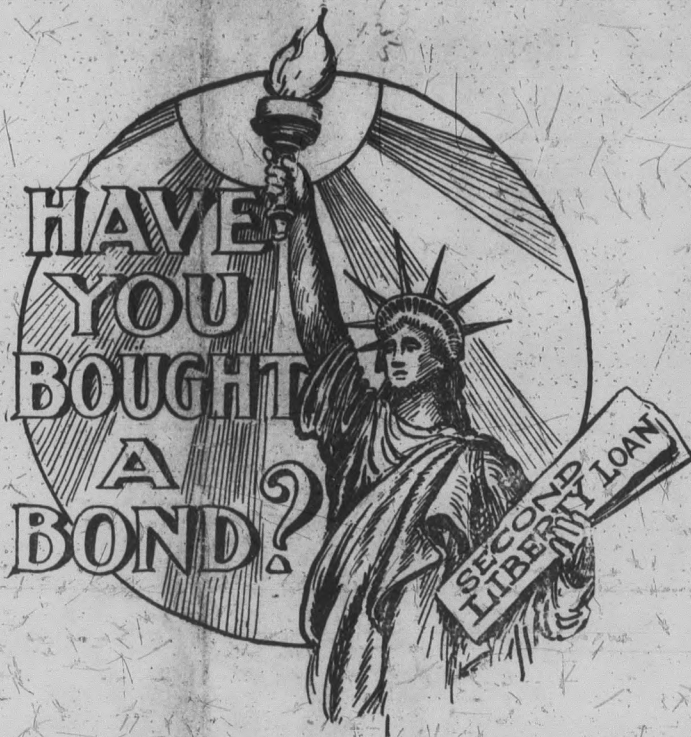

The assistants and reporters from the various departments will be selected only after careful consideration of the qualities of those applying. There are to be appointed four associate editors, art editor, fraternity editor, sorority editor, activities editor, a representative for each department and a photographer.

V. M. S. ELECTS OFFICERS

Walter E. Seymour '18 who was the Secretary-Treasurer of his Sophomore class was elected president of the Veterinary Medical Society at their last meeting. Other officers chosen were: Honorary President, Dr. John Lockwood; Honorary Vice-President, Dr. Grenfel; Honorary Secretary, Major J. P. Turner; Vice-President, C. L. Phillip '19; Secretary, L. L. Criswell, '18; Treasurer, Chas. Lockwood, '18; Editor, L. I. Hines, '19.

COUNCIL PLANS BENEFIT DANCES

Profits to Cut Down Athletic Deficit—Series of Four to be Given

ELECTION DISCUSSED

At the last meeting of the Student Council held last Tuesday night, plans were approved to hold a series of four Student Council Dances the proceeds of which will be applied to diminish last year's athletic deficit. The dances will be held at the Cairo or some other such place at $1 per couple, and will be strictly informal. Eugene Underwood was made chairman of the committee in charge and was given power to set the dates, choose the hall, and manage the dances. Announcement of the first will be made at an early date.

The greater part of the evening was taken up by a discussion on the merits of the nominees for councilmen and a choice of the two from each department to be voted on. It was decided that all registered students should have one vote in the election instead of last year's ruling which gave the franchise only to tax signers. Elmer Kayser, last year's chairman of the Election Committee, was appointed to take charge of this election.

The Council approved of the plan proposed by George Nordlinger that a George Washington University flag be purchased to be hung from the window of the Hatchet Office. Nordlinger was instructed to look into the matter more fully and report at the next meeting.

The question of forming a Mission Study Class, that has been referred to the council, was put into the hands of Elmer Kayser who will look into the matter and make a report at the next meeting.

The final report on the Basket Ball Guarantee Fund was deferred until complete reports from the members of the Committee and final answers from the Fraternities and Sororities are turned in.

The attendance Tuesday night was larger than usual due to the fact that several ex-officio members were present.

PATRIOTIC NEWS SERVICE FOR HATCHET

Letters From Prominent Men
Every Two Weeks

FIRST BY CLAXTON

Through the National Committee of Patriotic Societies which is starting a "Patriotic News Service," the Hatchet will publish approximately every two weeks articles of particular interest to college men and women on subjects relating to the war.

These articles will be written for the society by men of national prominence for the purpose of co-operating with the higher institutions of learning throughout the country in stirring up patriotism and acquainting students with the live problems of the war.

The first article written by P. P. Claxton, Commissioner of the U. S. Department of Education, is printed below:

A MESSAGE TO COLLEGE STUDENTS.

(By the Patriotic News Service, National Committee of Patriotic Societies.)

The defeat of the German autocracy is not only the task of armies and navies, but of every one who believes in the principles of democracy. It is not alone our soldiers and sailors who are fighting Germany, but every true American should also be doing what he can to bring about a speedy victory.

Young men and women in our American universities and colleges will soon be playing a very real part in our national life. You are preparing yourself now for future usefulness. You should remember always that your first duty is to the nation and that you will find your highest personal success in public service.

The fact that your country is at war imposes on you a double duty to study as hard as possible and to make yourself as valuable economically as you can. Live up to your duty as well as the men in the trenches are living up to theirs.

There is, however, one way you can be of immediate assistance to your country. You can purchase and help sell Liberty Bonds. Put what money you can spare now into the safest investment in the world. The cash, into which you can at any time convert these interest-bearing bonds, may prove most useful when you are starting to earn your own living. Buy Liberty Bonds and urge others to buy them!

VOTE TODAY FOR COUNCIL CANDIDATES

Five New Members to be Elected

POLLS CLOSE TUESDAY

Cast your ballot today for the new Student Councilmen. Two candidates from the five departments, Columbian College, Dental, Law, Medical and Veterinary, were chosen last Tuesday night by the Student Council. One from each department is to be elected to hold office for the current school year. The candidates were chosen in some instances from petitions by students and in others by the Council. Those chosen are as follows.

COLUMBIAN COLLEGE

Fenton Fadely, Senior, was assistant Manager of Football last year, Class Pres. '17, and Manager of Tennis, '16-'17.

Victor L. Kebler, Senior, was a member of the Football squad last year, playing in the Georgetown game, and also member of Basket Ball squad.

COLUMBIAN COLLEGE

Louis J. Genesse, Junior, Varsity Football team, '17.

Henry Clay Lowry, Senior, Class Pres. '17.

LAW SCHOOL

Walter Brandes and Earl Van Waggoner are both freshmen. There was some discussion in the Council due to the fact that these men are Freshmen but it was decided that they do not come under the rule requiring Freshmen from running as entrance requirements of the Law School presupposes some academic training.

MEDICAL SCHOOL

Joseph Kreiselman, Junior.

Frank H. Myers, Sophomore, Pres. Dramatic Association, '16, Treas. Freshman Class '16, Chairman Athletic Ticket Committee, '16, Fraternity Editor, Hatchet, '18.

VETERINARY SCHOOL

Harry Bießer, Junior.

Homer A. Dennewitz, Senior.

A ballot will be found on the last page of this issue. All ballots must be in by next Tuesday night at 8 o'clock when the Election Committee, with Elmer Kayser, chairman, will meet to count the votes, the results of which will be printed in the next issue. On the Election Committee are Martha Magraw for Columbian College, Vail Minnick for Medical and Dental and Einar W. Diserud for Law School. The Medical and Dental ballots will be sent to Minnick at the Medical Building, the Veterinary ballots to Elmer Kayser at the A. & S. Building, Columbian College ballots should be deposited in the Hatchet Box and the Law School ballots should be deposited in the Hatchet box at the Law School.

Each registered student is allowed one vote for one candidate in his or her department. Use the ballot on the last page of this issue or send in the name of your choice on another piece of paper. No votes will be counted that are not signed with the name, department and class of the voter. No ballots signed by more than one voter will be counted.

These Councilmen elected at this time will take seats at the next regular council meeting if approved by the Faculty Committee on Student Activities.

TENNIS MATCHES BEING PLAYED

Results of First Round to Be in by October 29.

The Men's Tennis Tournament is now in progress. Considerable interest has been shown since the arrangement of the matches, a list of which has been posted on the bulletin board of each department. All matches in the first round will be played off before October 29; the second round before November 2.

E. O. Salant, in charge of the tournaments, has announced that the Women's Tournament has been abandoned, due to the small number desiring to take part. It will be held next spring, when it is hoped that there will be more interest shown.

MEDICALS GIVE BOND TO G. W.

Unwilling to be outdone in patriotic effort by other sections of the University, the Sophomore Medical Class on last Wednesday morning suspended operations with scalpel and forceps in the dissecting room up in the "roof" on H street long enough to subscribe to a fifty dollar Liberty Bond which is to be made a gift to the Medical School. A number of the students had already made personal purchases of Kaiser-chasers but this did not prevent them from taking part in this class endeavor to hunt the Huns and simultaneously to give a little financial boost to the Medical School. The necessary fifty dollars was all subscribed in short order; the bond was purchased and the certificate presented to the school authorities immediately. The officers of this class are Bernard Freeland, president; George K. Dazey, vice-president; Everett L. Bradley, secretary; G. Vail Minick, treasurer; Hirst Hayes, sergeant-at-arms.

Uncle Sam Loans Engine to G. W. U.

Recognizes Value of Work in Naval Architecture.

In recognition of the work that G. W. U. is doing in Naval Architecture and Marine Engine Courses, Honorable Josephus Daniels, Secretary of the Navy, has authorized the loan of a U. S. steamer engine to the University for use in Engineering work. Dean Hodgkins said that this is a direct acknowledgment of the help the University is giving Uncle Sam in this time when there is a great need in the Government for ship's draughtsmen.

There are three courses in Naval Architecture this year, while formerly there has been only one.

C. C. JUNIORS ORGANIZE

The Juniors of Columbian College met Monday night and officers were elected for the coming year. Plans for a junior dance were discussed and a committee appointed to look into the matter. Henry Ravenel was elected president, Leonila Lloyd, vice-president, Carol Walker, secretary, Margaret Prentiss, treasurer, Louise Gardner, historian, and Charlotte Stimpson, sergeant-at-arms.

Personals

COLUMBIAN COLLEGE.

H. S. Ward, Eng. '19, is back with us to resume his studies after a few days spent in the service of "Uncle Sam" at Camp Meade. H. S. was exempted because of heart trouble, but those who know of his stoutness of heart in other affairs, especially feminine ones, think he must have fooled them in some other way.

"Billy" Wilbur, who left last week to join the Navy, is stationed at Charleston, S. C. He will be glad to hear from any of his friends at college. His address is Coxswain W. K. Wilbur, U. S. N. R. E., Sixth Naval District, Charleston, S. C.

Miss Katharine Moran exhibited such remarkable qualities in the manipulation of figures in Economics the other day while the class was discussing the Liberty Loan, that Prof. Kern recommends that she be "sicked on the Kaiser."

DENTAL

The Senior Class held a smoker at Sigma Chi House on October 20 and the affair was a huge success. Among the entertainers were "Heine" Lowry, "Gene" Walters, and Powell of the Senior Class and Adelaide Mann and Edward Rosenbloom of the Freshman Class. Doctors Hunter, Gallagher and Weyman of the Faculty were present. Dancing was indulged in and everybody had a general good time. Due credit is given the Entertainment Committee, consisting of Messrs. Boiko, Heim and King, for the success of the smoker.

PHARMACY

The Senior Class held a meeting last Thursday at which the following officers for the year were elected: Mr. Schwartz, president; Halbert Faulkner, vice-president; Clayton Bowman, treasurer; Halbert Faulkner, class editor, and Ellis Glycofries, secretary. There was very little competition owing to the fact that there were very nearly enough officers for every member of the class of nine.

Plans for social activities were discussed and it was decided to devote the next meeting to discuss the facilities which are available by the class for holding theatre parties, etc.

An argument marred the otherwise tranquil meeting. Mr. Swoboda told Mr. Glycofries: "Don't bottle in ven we are talking." Ellis responded with his stock retort: "Go way; you make me seck." However, both these sterling gentlemen affixed their "John Hancock's" to the tax cards and are now engaged in worryin' ghemselfes sick in order to get the hospital privileges.

Professor Muncaster's course in Pharmaceutical Jurisprudence has been shifted to this semester in order to give the college time to find some one to fill the chair of Mercantile Pharmacy recently vacated by Mr. Floyd.

MEDICAL

It is rumored that the Freshmen Meds. have at least one man for the "tug-or-war" tonight.

The Soph. Meds. have at last consented to take Materia Medica and well, Freeland has a corner on cats.

Col. Col. students desiring to earn their own way through school can do same by breaking Freeland's "corner," mentioned above.

Jos. Kreiselman, '19, has accepted a position with Emergency Hospital. He will handle ambulance cases.

Beck, '20, finds "Freshwomen" marriages a big drawback to all his plans this year and is seriously hindered by at least one of the Faculty.

Junior Meds. are now allowed fifteen minutes to go from Providence to the Washington Asylum.

R. H. Kane and Wm. K. Williamson of University of Maryland have registered with the Soph. Class.

The Junior Class has elected the following officers: President, H. W. Leetch; vice-president, H. Newcomer; secretary and treasurer, T. Crisp.

Glenn is now a man. He reached his 21st birthday last Saturday and has now taken up the gentle art of smoking. Ask him about his first cigar.

Dr. Dan Borden was married last week to Miss Pauline Stone of this city.

ENGINEERING COLLEGE.

The next meeting of the Engineering Society is scheduled to take place on Monday, November 12, at 6:45 P. M. It is hoped that there will be less delay in serving the "eats," so that the meeting will probably be over by 8 o'clock. An entertaining program is being arranged by the Executive Committee. Let everybody bring another engineer!

"Mike" Wingate's beautiful voice is missed very much in the drawing room these days.

"Al" Biggs seems to keep very quiet about the fact that he is president of the Council.

EXCHANGES

The University of Kansas has urged all student organizations having money in trust to invest the surplus in Liberty Bonds.

"The Daily Illini" which is published by the students of the University of Illinois, is to be sent to all the army camps in the United States at which Illinois men are now in training.

The University Library at the University of Illinois is conducting a sale of used Vistrola records for the purpose of raising funds to establish libraries for the United States soldiers in the various cantonments and in France.

"Student Life" of Washington University, St. Louis, Mo., believes in advertising as is shown by the following clipping: "If you wish to save money and avoid the high cost of living, buy a football season ticket from McCarthy. For further economic principles, subscribe to Student Life."

Kansas State University has derived a unique method of punishing those professors who are guilty of holding classes overtime. The names of such offenders are to be published on the front page of the "Daily Kansan."

At the University of Kansas the girls aren't the only ones who are knitting all the time. No indeed. University men are taking up the gentle art and are becoming so enthusiastic that soon one may expect to see them on the "Hill" with needles sticking out of their pockets.

A. & S. BUILDING TO HAVE NEW DOOR

The fire scare in the A. & S. Building has rushed to a considerable extent the plan of making a new entrance similar to the main one out of the little room next to the library.

This plan was considered last year, but, owing to the war prices and to the fact that an entrance so near the library might add confusion, was suspended.

On account of the increased number of students at the A. & S. Buildings, it now seems advisable to carry out this plan without delay, in order to reduce the pressure on the one front door.

Charles W. Holmes, treasurer of the University, is taking the necessary steps to forward the plan and expects soon to have the contractors at work.

GIRLS' BASKET BALL PRACTICE BEGINS

Basket ball practice for girls will begin next Tuesday night at half past seven in the Calvary Methodist Church gymnasium.

This is the first of the weekly practices which will be held for all girls who are interested. Miss Gardner the coach, is glad to have any girls come out even if they have not played before as there will be a chance for everybody.

Class and varsity officers will be elected as soon as possible. There will be class teams chosen for class contests if enough girls come out. The Varsity team which will play school games will be chosen after several practices and every one who tries has an equal chance to make the school team.

COLUMBIANS HOLD DEBATE

At the last meeting of the Columbian Debating Society the following question was debated: "Resolved, that at its next session Congress should enact a law granting suffrage to the citizens of the District of Columbia. The judges voted unanimously in favor of the negative, maintained by Messrs. Wham and Matthias, W. J. Wallick of the affirmative, was awarded first honors, and J. Matthias second honors.

Mr. Matthias then urged that a campaign be started to get more members for the society. There are now forty members, but more are desired.

OUR POET'S CHANCE.

The Stratford Publishing Company of Boston prepares a perennial publication called the "College Anthology" and has offered through its editorial department to consider for publication any of George Washington University students. Last year's publication of the Anthology, the first to be issued, represents gems from sixty colleges and contains 160 of the best poems written by university students during the past college year.

To quote the publisher's statement, "Our purpose in publishing this book is two-fold: We want to encourage the best literature in the universities, and to show to the poetry lovers in this country what a wealth of gems of the purest ray have hitherto been inaccessible to the public. For the age of poetry is youth, when ideals are still real and the artistic temperament has not yet been tainted through contact with the stern material realities of life. Keats did his best work at the college age; so did Shelley; so did Byron. The college student writes not for a living, but because he has something in him that will not remain unspoken."

On Saturday evening, the 20th, the first initiation of the year was held. Cleveland Cabler, Law '20, Herbert Johnson, Law '20, Earl Van Wagoner, Law '20, and Anton Kauffman, C. C. '20, were initiated.

A great many alumni were present to witness and assist. Prof. Prince of Richmond, the District Grand Master, made a special trip here for the occasion. His presence not only brought with it an official air, but his patriotic speech was very appropriate.

In addition to the pledges already announced, we are pleased to announce the pledging of Alvin Biggs, Eng. '19.

A well attended smoker was held on the 16th. A number of stirring speeches were made by alumni.

SIGMA NU.

Sigma Nu announces the initiation of the following men: Gordon C. Tibbitts, Columbian College, '21; Milo J. Sutliff, Engineering, '21; Rodger D. Gessford, Columbian College, '21; Lee A. Swem, Engineering, '21; George R. Sheriff, Law, '21; Herbert A. Chamberlain, Engineering, '21; William M. Mulligan, Engineering, '15.

Lieut. G. H. West, Medical Corps, University of Oklahoma, assigned to duty at the Army Medical School, is stopping at the house.

Geo. Q. Calderwood, U. of Pa., alumnus, has enlisted as a sergeant, Ordnance Reserve Corps, at present on duty in the Bureau of Ordnance, War Department.

Joseph Bellak, U. of Pa., alumnus and a member of the Pennsylvania bar, has enlisted as chief yeoman, Navy, and was assigned to duty in the Solicitor's office, Navy Department. Mr. Bellak is stopping at the Chapter House.

Robert P. Schmehl, who was in town since Friday, the 19th, awaiting transfer from the Draft Army to the Aviation Corps, was taken sick at the Chapter House and was removed to the Walter Reed Hospital for treatment.

A Hallowe'en dance will be held at the house Wednesday, October 31, 1917, in honor of the new "Sigs."

ALPHA OMEGA

The Alpha Omega Dental Fraternity announces the pledging of the following men: Dr. Joseph Altshuler Friedman, Samuel Katzman and Bernard Link in the class of 1919. Nathan Byer, Louis Tolmack, Edward L. Liefer, Alex. Rosenblum and Simon Isles in the class of 1920.

PHI SIGMA KAPPA

Bro. C. H. Wende, Psi, and Bro. Cronk, Theta, visited the Lambda Chapter last week.

Bro. C. J. Faist has received a second lieutenant's commission in the Intelligence Department of the National Army.

Bro. J. H. Batt has received a first lieutenant's commission in the Adjutant General's Department.

KAPPA ALPHA

The third smoker of the season was held at the chapter house, 1808 Kalorama Road, at which a great number of military K. A.'s were present from the camps around Washington. A very interesting talk on his experiences, in getting out of Germany when war was declared, was graphically given by Dr. Swisher. Other inspiring talks were given by Lieut. Doyle, Lieut. Nottingham, Lieut. Skiller, Lieut. Downs and by several of the prominent alumni. An appeal to buy Liberty Bonds was made by Mr. James Lee Bost, president of the Alumni. The Alumni held their annual election with the following results: James Lee Bost, president; Clark Cross, vice-president; Leroy C. Boyd, secretary.

A large tea-dance is to be given in the near future for the pledges and the Kappa Alphas stationed in the various military camps around Washington.

The biennial convention of the Kappa Alpha fraternity will be held at Jacksonville, Fla., from December 27-30 inclusive. A number of men from Alpha Nu Chapter will be present as will a number of the Alumni.

KAPPA PSI

Kappa Psi announces the pledging of Geo. Nordlinger, '22, A. H. Bradshaw, '21, and L. M. Poster, '21.

Bro. Wm. Williamson, '20, from University of North Carolina, and Bro. A. D. Kane, '20, and R. D. Plotts, '20, of U. of Md., have entered the Medical School.

A letter from Bro. Reed, who left last Monday for Camp Mills, L. I., states that he will not leave for "over there" for ten days more at least.

Kappa Psi held their second "rush" smoker last Friday night. Dr. Gannon spoke on an interesting topic, the subject of interest only to Meds. (Don't get curious.) A Dixie banjo orchestra furnished music of the "real rag" style. And the "cats"—we now see the advantage of exercise.

THETA DELTA CHI.

Chi Deut. takes pleasure in announcing the pledging of Messrs. Styron, Shropshire, Roberts, Reynolds and Wingate.

Letters were recently received from "Det." Marthinson, N. T. Raymond and George Cooper announcing their arrival at an English port. They are all lieutenants in the Coast Artillery Corps.

Roy L. Neuhauser, president of the Graduate Association visited the house last Saturday evening.

Grick Farmer, Chi Deut. '10, has gone to Cleveland to practice law.

SIGMA CHI

The challenge of our pledges to a tug of war before the big scrappo-night, was accepted first by Phi Sigma Kappa. We wish them success but advise them to bring a bath towel.

Pledges representing most of the other fraternities were entertained by our pledges last Tuesday evening. Gingerbread and cider took the place of "Omar's loaf of bread and jug of wine." The boys got well acquainted and made a few tentative plans for the tug of war.

A successful rush smoker was held at the Chapter House last Tuesday.

Most every Sig in Washington will gather at the house on Hallowe'en for a good old fashioned party.

Extensive plans are being made for a Hallowe'en dance for Saturday, November third. The baneful eye of the witch will amuse the fraternities as usual.

SIGMA PHI EPSILON

The two members of S. P. E. in the D. C. Health Department, L. B. Foster and William B. Smith, are now in the Navy and Army, respectively, the former as paymaster on a converted German liner and the latter with troop B. of the D. C. Guards at Aniston, Ala.

Ray Hinton has recently left for France as field clerk.

C. S. Hunter dropped in Saturday on a week-end trip from the new naval base at Norfolk where he is stationed.

DELTA TAU DELTA

At the dance given Saturday night the local chapter was able to provide a little entertainment for several visiting Deltas who are stationed at the Marine training camp at Quantico.

We were honored by a visit from Bro. John Linder, who had received a short furlough from the training camp at Princeton.

Bros. Lang and Russel Du Val have been assigned to duty with the aviation corps in France.

Clarence A. Smith has returned from a survey in Maine and will soon be with us once more as an active.

We are glad to announce the pledging of Mr. Van Waggener of California.

SIGMA ALPHA EPSILON

"Movies" were the feature of the get-together smoker at the S. A. E. House last Saturday night. Thanks to Bro. Mack of the University of Illinois, three reels of Pathe pictures were shown depicting the life of the District of Columbia men who were drafted for the National Army and who are now being trained at Camp Meade.

We are pleased to announce the pledging of Mr. Campfield of the Freshman Law Class and Leslie H. Adams, president of the Sophomore Class of Columbian College.

Bros. Safer and Hamilton have already received their commissions of lieutenantship in the Infantry, and have left for their homes in Milwaukee prior to departing for training quarters.

Ellis Levin of Baltimore paid Washington a visit last Sunday, stopping at the home of Bro. Lorenz.

Max Rhoads took a jump to Baltimore and spent one day there on Sunday. We thank you for this courtesy.

SIGMA KAPPA

Monday, October 15, Zeta Chapter entertained at supper, Miss Keough, from Minnesota, and Miss Boeger, from California, were among the guests of the evening.

Thursday, October 18, Zeta Chapter had a corn roast and dance at the Eastern Star Home, Takoma Park. It was a merry crowd that met at Thirtieth and New York Avenue after the last class to be chaperoned by Mrs. George W. Harsch. The ride out in the busses was rather cool, but the fire was warm when we alighted.

Miss Betty Richardson has resigned her government position in order that she may resume her studies with the day classes.

CHI OMEGA.

Miss Florence Scott, from Denver, Col., is visiting in Washington.

Miss Emma Reh, who has been doing research work in chemistry in Hanover, Pa., spent a few days in Washington during the past week. She expects shortly to go to Charlottesville, Va.

Miss Elizabeth Paull, who had a serious accident down at the Chemical Building, is slowly recovering.

PI BETA PHI

Misses Irene Huse, Ethel Yohe, Aline Crittenden, Elizabeth Heitmulder and Lettie Stewart were guests at the officer's dance at Fort Washington last Friday.

The active chapter was entertained by Miss Mabel Scott last Wednesday night after the regular Alumnae meeting.

Miss Helmick, who has charge of the Pi Phi Settlement School work in Gattlingsberg, Tenn., was a guest at the chapter meeting last Tuesday.

MISSION CLASSES FOR G. W. STUDENTS

George Washington University has been invited to join the nationwide movement of forming mission study classes for college students. The Student Volunteer Movement of the Y. M. C. A. has extended this invitation to the University through the Student Council. The purpose of this movement is to furnish college students with a preliminary training which will be valuable to students desiring to become foreign missionaries. The Council intends to present this matter to the student body, and if enough enthusiasm is shown, it is likely that it will receive the official sanction of the University, although the University's policy in the past has not been to initiate such movements.

NEW ENGINEERING PROFS.

Two new men have been appointed in the Department of Electrical Engineering to take Professor C. W. Mortimer's classes as he resigned from the faculty.

They are Mr. Guy T. Morris, a graduate of Cornell University, who took his M. S. degree here last year, and Mr. Carl F. Hanson, a graduate of the University of Kansas in 1912 and in 1913 he took his M. S. degree in E. E. from that university. He later taught there and is now employed at the Bureau of Standards.

Class Contests

Class contests, when they are of a harmless nature in which the contestants are not seriously injured and hard feeling does not result, are a very necessary part of University or College life. Contests of the other variety, which result in fights sometimes seriously injuring those taking part and usually leaving hard feeling between the classes are neither desirable nor necessary and are being gradually eliminated in the prominent universities.

The G. W. tug of war which was held last year for the first time and which as a result of last year's success is being held again tonight belongs to the first class mentioned above and should be made permanent in this University as it probably will be.

The tug of war is entirely a friendly contest of strength between the freshmen and sophomores and goes a great way to arouse class and school spirit. It gives the two classes at the very beginning of the school year an incentive to organize and it brings the rest of the students together for the evening for a real good time. It also shows the rest of the city that G. W. is wide awake and has that College spirit and pep that is usually looked for in a real university.

Go to town. Pull your best tonight for our class, and remember that a G. W. man is both a good loser and a good winner.

ELECTION

Balloting begins today to fill vacancies in the Student Council.

The Council is the student body that directs the activities and looks after the student welfare. It is entirely a representative body composed of students from the various departments who were elected by the student body of their department. They were elected because they had proven that they were interested in G. W. by doing something for her. They have remained on the Council because they are still interested in G. W. and are still willing to work to prove that interest.

The new members to be elected at this time should be of the same caliber. If they are not, they will be a hindrance and not a help to the present members. In voting cast your ballot for the candidate whom you know will work. Lay aside personal or fraternity friendship if necessary and elect the man who, in your honest opinion, is the best qualified for the position.

Be sure and cast your ballot so that the men elected will represent the largest possible number of students.

"OVER THERE"

"Give my regards to all of the fellows at George Washington and tell them I should like to see them all again and would like very much to hear from them," writes Lieutenant Teller, College of Engineering, '18, from "Somewhere in France," which shows that even a trip across the Atlantic does not dampen the ardor of a loyal son of George Washington for his Alma Mater.

Remembering Lieut. Teller as one of George Washington's most energetic councilmen, it is not surprising to learn that he has been made an aide-de-camp to his general. His address is as follows, if you want to write to him: Lieut. Leslie Teller, 1st Exped. Brigade C. A. C., A. E. F. (via New York).

Realizing that there are many more of our boys who are "First in war, first in peace, and first in the hearts of their class mates," the editor of this column would appreciate any information, letters, or extracts from letters, from any George Washington boys "Over There." We would particularly like as many addresses as possible in order to get into direct communication if possible.

NOTE—Read your Hatchet, then send it to one of our boys in the service.

Why Study!

After a careful analysis of the method in which "A" records are made at G. W. U., the following rules can be derived:

1. Laugh heartily at all the professor's jokes, whether they are funny or not.
2. Never ask a question that causes your teacher to pass it on to his class to look up in order to conceal how little he knows about it himself, (although he may tell you he welcomes such deep questions).
3. Look up, for only the Prof. can look down.
4. Remember silence is golden, let him ask you what you know or he might find out what you don't know.
5. Meekly insinuate that the Prof. has forgotten more than you'll ever know.

If you desire an "A" record these rules will help.
P.S.—In case they don't work you might try studying a bit.

A Frosh's Diary

Wednesday.

I have decided to keep a journal of my college experiences so that when I become famous as—well, I haven't decided just what—but when I do, some museum may be glad to display this account in a glass case. There will be plenty of time to consider how to become famous after I have graduated. Just now that is the main task of my life. I see by the catalogue that one must have sixty hours credit before one can get a degree. There are about thirty-two weeks of school a year; fifteen times that gives four eighty and that times four years gives 1920. I have figured that in 1920 hours I could play 5760 sets of tennis, allowing three sets to an hour. After all that I would have the world championship cinched. I have figured that in 1920 hours I could ride about 11,520 miles on horseback, if I had a horse, which I haven't. I haven't figured what else I could do with that 1920 hours because it requires too much math, and I never did like math, and because, "Of all sad words of tongue or pen the saddest are these: 'It might have been.'"

Well, when I got to college I asked someone where the freshmen were to go and she said, "Right in to see Dean Wilbur." I asked the lady in charge if she was Dean Wilbur and she said no, he was a man. Some girls who were standing there had the impudence to giggle. I'm sure there was nothing to laugh at. Some colleges certainly have lady deans and I'm sure the one in the office would make a splendid dean.

I asked when I could see Professor Wilbur.

"He's just in the next room. You will have no trouble at all."

I waited two solid hours before I got to the first place in the line. I had no trouble at all.

Thursday.
I went to some classes today. I hope they were the ones I signed for; I forget what I said I'd take. I only remember that I saw Spanish on the paper and told Dean Wilbur I'd take that.

"First or second year?" he asked.

"Second," I answered. The trouble is that this morning I happened to think that first year Spanish usually comes before second and so I wisely went to Spanish one today, seeing that all I know of the language is "si, si." I would like to say here that anyone who wonders how I came to say "second" when I should have said "first" ought to stand for two hours in a dark hall as I did yesterday.

A boy down in the corridor asked me if I happened to have a hatchet.

"Why no. What do you think I am—an escaped Indian?" said I.

"No, Freshman," said he, and I wonder how he knew I was a Freshman, "should go about unless armed with a hatchet."

He handed me a paper, and I thought I'd read some portent that an awful deed was nigh, but I found that the school weekly is called "The Hatchet." A hatchet, I remember, was the thing that told George Washington he couldn't tell a lie.

Friday.
Some "Don'ts for Frosh" which I saw in The Hatchet I have cut out and studied carefully.

"Don't walk across the campus." I must say that the upperclassmen needn't be so stingy with the campus. However, perhaps it was said out of kindness of heart, for which upperclassmen, especially sophs, are noted. They are no doubt afraid that, owing to the size of the campus, we will lose ourselves upon it and be late to class.

"Don't tell your friends that you're going to be a Tappa Nu Keg, you may not be bid." I really must study up on Greek letters so I know that frat when I see it. It must be an important one since they think we might want to join it.

"Don't forget to take off your hat when conversing with upper classmen." I hope that applies to boys only. It would really be a queer rule for the girls, and rather unhandy.

This is all the rules I learned before I had to go to rhet.

Some Dream!

All the important facts concerning the scrap were before me. I was to write a story based on these facts, with a snappy little plot and a lot of action. My brain was kind of fagged. It had been a long hard day and I was tired. Gee, the editor said that he would be back for the story at 6 o'clock. I'd better get busy. My eyes ached—I closed them for a minute.

"Hey you, in there! Come on out!"

Sounds of laughter, excited chattering, a noise resembling a cross between a suffrage riot and a sewing circle. I dashed to the window and beheld a mass of bright colors, sprinkled with sparkling eyes, laughing lips and outstretched hands. I rubbed my eyes—yes, there were all the girls—tempestuous Maud, vivacious Nell, roly-poly Anne, and even quiet little Ruth, now as lively as the rest. When they saw me, they all cried in one breath:

"Come on out; we want you!"

Needless to say I was soon in the midst of them.

"The fellows have given up the scrap! They won't fight, 'cause some of the Sophs backed out; so the rest quit, too! But we're going to carry on the battle anyway. It's up to us girls! We'll show 'em. There's plenty of spirit here! Hurrah for women's rights!" were just a few of the excited ejaculations thrown at me.

Down to Potomac Park we marched. Already a big crowd awaited us. The fellows, learning that the girls were going to carry on the fray, were there to cheer and jeer. The rope, abandoned by the boys, lay snaking across the bridge path. We seized it eagerly—twenty-five girls on each side. Some one turned the big fire-hose on and it spouted thirty feet or more into the air—a glorious, geyserish stream of key, cold water. A few of the girls hesitated at the sight, but the rest of us, starting to pull, compelled them to join. The Sophomore Amazons had the best of it from the beginning and inch by inch we were pulled toward the Niagara-like stream. My teeth began to chatter; those of my companions joining in the chorus. We gave an extra hard pull and the Sophs gave way a little. They recovered their lost advantage in a minute. My feet were sliding now. Nearer and nearer we were dragged. I could feel the cold spray in my face. All at once I remembered that I had on my very best crepe de chene dress. I hadn't been given time to change like the other girls. The spray mingled with drops of perspiration on my brow. Another minute and we would be under the Arctic waterfall. I yelled:

"Stop! Stop!"

And then I woke up to find the editor squeezing the stamp sponge on my face and grinning wickedly.

"Have you got it ready?" he queried.

"No, not yet," I cried, still breathless from my dream, "but I'll have it done in just a minute."

THE FRESHMAN.

OUR ORPHANS

The two war orphans, Jean and Yvonne Rousseau, who were adopted by the students and faculty of George Washington University last year, ought to have some Christmas presents. Professor George Henning who has received several notes from the mother of the children thanking their American Godfathers for their kindness, suggests that $20 be collected and sent to the mother to be used as she thinks best.

The following is a note from Madame Rousseau:

August 29.

Mon Cher Bienfaiteur:

I acknowledge the receipt of the money orders you have been kind enough to send to each of my children. I do not know how to express my thanks to you or testify my gratitude. Jean and Yvonne already speak frequently of their American godfathers. For my part I strive to make them understand how praiseworthy your splendid deed is and how worthy you are of esteem and respect and be sure that these dear little ones have already a very deep affection for you.

Professor Henning has started the fund for Christmas presents with a donation of two dollars. Other subscriptions may be sent to the Hatchet. You have adopted these orphans. It is up to you to give them a Merry Christmas.
